DO WE CHANGE?

Do our dreams really change
O're a widespread range
As the years crawl by
And decades fly?
Do our wishes slow,
Or swiftly grow
As the times all change
With their endless range?
Do our minds expand
And fill the land
Of our given spread
Under mercy shed?
Do the ages give
A new way to live
On this old earth,
Home of our birth?
Do we wiser grow
And our children show
The wisdom gained
On this domain?
Do you really think
That on this brink
Of humanity
A change you'll see?

Couch Frost's Rams have even season 4-4-1

The Ram Football Team fought its way to an even season this year under the direction of its new coaching staff of Bill Frost and assistant Dick Lyons. Even with sixteen returning lettermen, the Rams lost their first three games against Kingwood, Valley and Beall. The Rams' next three games saw a change, though, as Southern crushed through Mountaineer, Parsons, and Terra Alta. Then Southern fell before Bruce only to rise again and smash Petersburg. With a 4-4 record, Southern prepared to face Northern for the Garrett County Championship. Southern's sixteen seniors fought hard to win their last game but that cold fall night yielded a 14-14 deadlock, thus evening Southern's season 4-4-1.

Southern matmen take second county championship

The excellent coaching of Asa McCain and an unusually good group of wrestlers to work with resulted in Southern's first undefeated wrestling season, with a record of 10-0. Three of our wrestlers, Scott Rush (10-0), Brad Reams (10-0), and Carol Deems (7-0-3) finished the season with unblemished records.

The schools that fell victim to the skilled matmen included Kingwood, Bruce, Petersburg, Northern, Romney, and Allegheny. Southern also attended the Bi-County Tourney at Bruce High School, placing four wrestlers, Scott Rush, Brad Reams, Gary Friend, and Ralph Fitzwater, eligible to compete in the District Tourney at Allegheny High School. From there, Brad Reams traveled to the State Tournament.

At the wrestling banquet held on April 22, Brad Reams was awarded the Outstanding Wrestler Trophy for his achievements.

Rams conclude best season in history

The Southern Rams' 1969-70 basketball season was packed with excitement from the beginning until the last game. Capacity crowds filled Southern's gym to watch our team sail through five consecutive wins before bowing to Bishop Walsh.

Mr. Kuhn's varsity team finished the season with the best record in the school's history with seventeen wins and only five losses.

Enthusiasm was high as spectators, along with the Spirit Squad, cheered our varsity players to victory after victory. A tired, but happy Ruffy Ridder was hoisted atop Spirit Squad members' shoulders after a victorious and hard-fought game with the Valley Knights.

Southern added two new schools to our schedule as we challenged Bishop Walsh of Cumberland and North Dorchester of Hurlock in Dorchester County on the Eastern Shore.

Homecoming brings exciting weekend to Pam and Joe

The tenth annual Homecoming of Southern High School got underway Thursday night, October 23, with a bonfire in the community parking lot. Highlighting the evening was the announcement of Pam Frantz and Joe Ashby as King and Queen by Mr. Frost, football coach.

On Friday afternoon a pep assembly was held to encourage and raise school spirit. It paid off that night at the game when the Southern Rams walked all over the Petersburg Vikings with a score of 28-0.

Prior to the game was the annual parade. Southern's Junior and Senior Bands participated along with several floats. The F.N.A.'s float won first prize for originality.

The festivities ended with the G.A.A. sponsoring the dance on Saturday night.

Senior Class presents hit "Spooks Alive"

A three act mystery-comedy entitled "Spooks Alive" was presented by the senior class under Mr. Crone's supervision.

The play began as a college professor, his family, friends, and servant moved into a deserted prison. Professor Rockby (Bill Buchanon) needed "atmosphere" for the book he wanted to write.

Strange things began to happen when Marcel (Marilyn Niner) became obsessed with the thought that she really wasn't herself. Matters became more complicated when the maid, Mrs. Simpson (Sandy Beeghly), saw a Ghost (Wayne Dunbar). The only person that believed her was Bridget (Jessica Webster), twelve year daughter of the Professor. Before long, Marcel disappeared after Gennie (Karen Crone) left her in the Tower room.

Plenty of laughs were had because of Knucklehead's (Kim Frederick) antics when trying to find Marcel. It was noticed that Marcel looked like the lost daughter of George Albright, last man hanged in the Tower. With the capture of the Ghost and the return of Marcel, a twenty year old mystery was solved.

'Stranger in the Night' — Junior Class Play

This year the junior class presented "Stranger in the Night," a three act play comedy mystery, to the public.

The setting was a bookshop owned by Mable Crane and Sylvia Lee. A newsreporter, Grant Terry, received a tip that someone in the Boulevard Hotel was to be murdered. Terry tried to solve the plot. The mystery began when it was learned that the name of the person who was to be murdered was contained in an article in the shop.

After it was discovered that a murder was to occur, the entire cast felt that he was the victim. It all turned out that J. T. Rutledge was the intended person.

The muderer was unknown at first. All the facts led to Sam Fisk who had been hired to do away with Rutledge. Fisk was captured and given a workover by Marcella Bender, a female wrestler.

The play was an outstanding success and entertained all who attended.

Bottom Left: J. T. Rutledge (Bill Grant) explodes "Body? Body? Whose body?"

Southern is well represented in area by SSA

A medieval setting depicting a castle balcony provided the background for the 1970 Junior-Senior Prom "Romeo and Juliet." The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the queen, Miss Deborah Filsinger, by Principal Robert F. Rodeheaver. Miss Filsinger was escorted by Paul Frantz. Junior Class president, Bill Grant, in keeping with the yellow and green color scheme, presented the Queen with a bouquet of yellow roses.

The commencement ceremony for the graduating class of 1970 was held June 5th. Following the processional of the 201 members of the class, class president Bob Rudy welcomed all who were attending the ceremony and presented the school with a set of flags as the seniors' gift.

Judy Sherwood presented the Salutatory Address followed by Valedictorian Bonnie White. Principal Robert Rodeheaver awarded Wayne Dunbar and Bonnie White with the Danforth "I Dare You" awards for outstanding achievement and balance of character.

Mr. B. O. Aiken, representative to the House of Delegates, introduced the evening's speaker, Thomas Hunter Lowe, speaker of the House.

The Valedictory and Salutatory awards were given to Bonnie White and Judy Sherwood by Mr. Rodeheaver.

Sophomores present "The Worm Shall Squirm"

The Sophomore Class proudly presented its first class play, "The Worm Shall Squirm," January 21, under the direction of Miss Lease. After Homer Dunhagen's family and friends objected to the way he ran Brookfield High, he decided to retire as principal. Buzzy and Leroy took his place.

Little did they realize the problems they would have to face. Rosemary wanted to be Homecoming Queen, Phyllis wanted dances during school, Rash wanted to play basketball, Diane wanted to be Head Cheerleader, Mrs. Burton wanted "better" subjects for her daughter Jenny, and Mr. MacDonald, head of the School Board, was angry at Homer.

Leroy and Buzzy soon appealed to Homer for help. After the situation worsened, Homer reclaimed his position as principal.

Relieved of their duty, Leroy and Buzzy breathed a sigh of relief.

Top: "Rosemary (Sherry Trickett), I'm sorry about you not being chosen Homecoming Queen. I'd have picked you." said Rash (Roger Ware).

Left: "Everything will be alright Mr. MacDonald" (Teddy Martin) stated Beethe (Pam Rudy).

Top: Diane (Karen McHenry) used her powers of persuasion on Leroy (John Perrine).
Right: "You'll make a beautiful girl, Buzzy" (Jim Crone), exclaimed Phyllis (Martha Shirer).
Bottom: Mrs. Burton (Becky Carroll) asked Mr. Dunhagen, "Why don't you offer a course in archeology or a course in the tribal languages in Africa. Something useful!"

Teddy,
 Remember all the good times we had producing our 1st class play? Hope you'll have lots of good luck and fun in your year at SHS and beyond.

Monongahela Power is proud of the contribution it has made to your education. For instance, last year taxes paid on our properties amounted to more than $2,000,000, the greatest percentage of which went for the operation of schools throughout our service area.

Whatever you plan to do in the future, low-priced electricity will continue to play a major role in the satisfaction of your everyday needs.
